RADIO, DRAMA, NARRATION, ADVERTISING

James has worked extensively for ABC Radio, recording works as diverse as straight plays, scientific programs as well as poetry. He recently did a much acclaimed reading of The Journals of Watkin Tench & a bestselling CD of The Gospel according to Luke. His voice has been used in countless television commercials and radio voice-overs. Most recently, James is continuing his work with the voice-overs for Quit Smoking Australia.

COMEDY

James has worked as a character comedian (a la Campbell McComis) for Business Conventions and seminars etc. Two of his more successful characters were a drunken, abusive English press baron (for the Printers Union) and an unctuous Californian fitness instructor at various health club dinners. He has also been the link and introduction comedian for the WA Comedy Club. One of his more unusual routines being his impersonation of James Mason, Sir John Geilgud, Richard Burton and Winston Churchill.

VOICE AND DRAMA TEACHING

Since returning to Perth James has taught at the West Australian Academy of Performing Arts, The Film & Television institute & has taught countless aspiring actors, voice over artists & broadcast journalists. James is also in demand as a voice and drama teacher to actors, announcers and business people. He has been speech and drama coach for NIDA Outreach and NSW High School Drama Program.
